

FMDC Scarecrow Shenanigans Schedule

Sunday, October 18

Event time 1-4pm

Families, if you are coming to our Super Mario performance and will not be participating in any of the other Scarecrow Shenanigans activities that afternoon, please tell the front desk staff that you are just there to watch the FMDC performance, and you will be let in for free. If your family will want to play at the Museum or take part in any of the other activities, please purchase your tickets at the Museum front desk before the day of our performance.

Dancers, please remember no eating in costume, so please eat your lunch before you arrive.

|               |                                                                                                              |
|---------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 12:15-12:30pm | Dancers arrive with hair and make-up done before the event begins; Preschool A&B will be your dressing rooms |
| 12:30-1pm     | Warm up in the studios in practice clothes & run through of entire show in costume                           |
| 1-1:25pm      | Finish getting ready for performance & gather audience                                                       |
| 1:30pm        | First performance of "Super Mario" + 10 minute dance party directly after the performance                    |

|             |                                                                                                                                                                        |
|-------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1:45-2:30pm | Break – you may walk around the galleries in costume if you want to interact with kids. If you want to do any crafts or activities, please change out of your costume. |
| 2:30-2:55pm | Get back into Costume & gather audience                                                                                                                                |
| 3:00pm      | Second performance of "Super Mario" + 10 minute dance party directly after the performance                                                                             |

|             |                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|-------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 3:15-3:30pm | Say goodbye to audience & put all costumes and accessories back in the preschool rooms as you found them. Please tidy up your dressing areas, and you are free to go! Thank you! |
|-------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Between shows:

If you would like to walk around the Museum and in the galleries, please roam around in your costumes and interact with kids/guests. If there are toys/props on the floor or out of place, please help put things back where they belong.

NO EATING in costume. If you will be having a snack or anything other than water, please remove your costume and stay away from other dancers in costume. Please wash your hands after eating.

You must be back in costume and gathering up an audience at 2:50pm.

Costume information:

All dancers should wear light stage make-up including blush, brown eye shadow, mascara & lipstick one shade darker than your natural tone.

- Soloists:
  - Mario & Luigi – long sleeve shirt & overalls, hat & mustache, white gloves, Converse; low bun
  - Yoshi: white leotard underneath costume; headpiece; Converse; hair in bun
  - Peach: pink tutu, nude tights & nude jazz shoes; hair down & curly
  - Toad: white leotard with jacket, white pants, headpiece & Converse; hair in bun
  - Bowser: black unitard with jacket & headpiece; black socks & black jazz shoes; hair in bun
- Mini Marios & Luigis: White leotard (please wear your own nude leo underneath); Red or blue skirt; Tan tights; Black jazz shoes; Baseball hat; Low ponytail
- Mini Mushrooms: Black & white dress (please wear your own nude leo underneath); Tan tights; Converse; Mushroom bucket hat; Low ponytail
- Koopa: white leo or tank (please wear your own nude leo underneath); green pants; Converse; Baseball hat; Low ponytail

After the performance:

Please hang up and return your costume the rack exactly as you found it. Return all headpieces to the appropriate box. Clean up all trash, tidy up the preschool room and return chairs to their original location. You are free to go once you have cleaned up your space and returned your costume. Thank you for a great show!